

THE PLAIN DEALER

North Royalton schools pick superintendent

Tuesday, May 05, 2009

New school superintendent picked

Middle School Principal Ed Vittardi has been tapped to become the superintendent of the North Royalton school district, beginning Aug. 1. The board is expected to formally approve his hiring Thursday. Vittardi, 46, will replace Randy Boroff, who will be the new superintendent of the Revere school district.

EAST CLEVELAND

Grants support seniors and aging needs

The East Cleveland-based McGregor Foundation, Ohio's only foundation that exclusively funds programs involving seniors and aging needs, has announced its latest grant recipients. They include: Golden Age Centers of Greater Cleveland, which received $34,480 to help with technology upgrades; $25,000 to Legal Aid Society of Cleveland for its Pro Bono Elder Law Project; and $25,000 to the Jennings Center for evaluation of the REACH Project, a long-term care work force development initiative. In all, $209,000 was distributed to 15 local programs and institutions.

©2009 Plain Dealer

© 2009 cleveland.com All Rights Reserved.