CLEVELAND — The Legal Aid Society of Cleveland is hosting a clinic May 24, from 2 to 4 p. m., as part of KeyBank's "Make a Difference Day" at Catholic Charities Lorain Family Center, 203 West Eighth St.

This is a first come, first served free advice clinic for low-income individuals with civil legal issues.

Please bring all relevant paperwork with you.

Each year, Legal Aid helps 23,000 people in Northeast Ohio access the justice system. The types of cases Legal Aid handles include landlord/tenant issues, foreclosures, family law and issues related to health, education, work and income.
