The Legal Aid Society of Cleveland helps low-income residents with a variety of legal issues. Several events are planned for "Pro Bono Week" this week, including the recruitment of Cleveland-area lawyers for their services.

Mary Beth McConville is an attorney with the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland. She offers an update on all the services Legal Aid offers, including help with foreclosure proceedings.

Abigail Greiner, a staff attorney for Cuyahoga County Common Plea Judge Joan Synenberg, is one of the attorneys who already volunteer for Legal Aid. She will be working during pro bono week to train more than 200 attorneys to help with expungement cases, following the passage of a new law in Ohio.

Eligible clients with misdemeanors and felonies on their record can have them expunged, or cleared from their records, with the proper assistance.
