Defendants

A review of the evidence submitted at trial discloses the following facts:

- 1. Plaintiff owns the property rented to defendants.
- 2. Parties entered into a one year written lease (copy in file) following completion of an application (copy not provided).
- 3. The body of the lease makes no reference to the size of family renting the apartment.
- 4. The lease specifies that guests or roommates may not stay for more than one week without written consent of land owner.
- 5. The only complaint voiced at the trial was that the defendants had three children living in the apartment with the two adults.
- 6. The three children are the natural children of the two adults.
- 7. The intent of the landlord is to limit family to four persons per apartment. This policy extends to asking parents to leave after a third child is born.

and the second control of the second of the Conclusion

- 1. The lease does not limit family size.
- 2. A natural child is not a "guest or roommate" within the normal definition of those terms.
 - 3. The tenants were current with the rent.
- 4. No other violations of the lease were claimed in the complaint and no other evidence of a violation was offered.

It is therefore the finding of this Court that the plaintiff has failed to show a violation of the lease and is not entitled to possession under the complaint and evidence presented.
