A tax-efficient gift from your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) to benefit Legal Aid

This summary provides general information. It is not intended as legal, accounting, or other professional advice. For assistance in planning charitable gifts with tax and other financial implications, please consult your financial advisor or tax professional.

What is a Charitable IRA Rollover?

The Charitable IRA Rollover allows individuals age 70½ and older to make direct transfers from individual retirement accounts to qualified charities without having to count the transfers as income for federal tax purposes. In addition, if you have reached the age where you must take a required minimum distribution (RMD) from your IRA, the transfer counts toward that amount.

What gifts qualify for a Charitable IRA Rollover?

- A rollover must go directly from your IRA to a 501(c)(3) organization like Legal Aid for which the donor receives no benefits. It cannot be given to a Donor Advised Fund or private foundation.
- The rollover must come from a traditional IRA and not from any other type of retirement plan (401(k), 403(b), Keogh, ESOP).
- For 2025, an individual's total Charitable IRA Rollover gifts cannot exceed $108,000 per tax year.
- A Required Minimum Gift must be made by a person age 73 or older.

Do I receive a tax deduction with a Charitable IRA Rollover gift?

No. Since the rollover is excluded from your taxable income, providing a deduction in addition to that exclusion would create a double tax benefit. Because the rollover reduces income and is not an itemized deduction, the gift benefits even those donors who do not itemize but instead file the standard deduction.

What is the latest regarding Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs)?

The Setting Every Community Up for Retirement Enhancement (SECURE) Act took effect on January 1, 2020. Beginning in 2023, the SECURE 2.0 Act raised the age that you must begin taking RMDs to age 73. If you reached age 72 in 2024, the required beginning date for your first RMD is April 1, 2026, for 2025.

- You must take your first RMD by April 1 of the year following the year when you turn 73.
- After your first RMD, you must take subsequent RMDs by December 31 of each year.

In each case, the amount of your Charitable IRA Rollover counts toward your annual RMD.

How do I initiate a Charitable IRA Rollover to Legal Aid?

Contact your IRA administrator to request. We have provided a sample letter on the back of this information sheet that you are free to use for reference.

How do I inform Legal Aid that I've designated my Charitable IRA Rollover?

Financial advisors do not always let Legal Aid know about pending or confirmed transactions. Please contact Shauna Mendez at 216.861.5415/smendez@lasclev.org or return the enclosed pledge form to inform Legal Aid.
