JUDGMENT ENTRY

Case called for pretrial on Plaintiff's first cause of action with Magistrate Heather A. Veljković. Plaintiff was neither present, nor represented by counsel. However, Plaintiff's brother Rickey Dabydeen appeared, with Power of Attorney paperwork appointing him as power of attorney for Plaintiff. Defendant was present and represented by counsel.

A person holding a power of attorney, but who is not licensed to practice law in the State of Ohio, may not represent the rights of another in Court. Disciplinary Counsel v. Coleman (2000), 88 Ohio St.3d 155.

Plaintiff having failed to appear, this matter is dismissed for want of prosecution at Plaintiff's costs for which judgment is rendered.

Case closed; file to judgment.
