Study Rooms with Video Conferencing

at Cuyahoga County Public Library

We have outfitted our study rooms with video conference equipment so our customers can meet virtually with social services, health agencies or potential employers via Zoom, Skype, MS Teams or Google Meet.

Our video conferencing rooms can be reserved 1 week in advance for up to 2 hours, during regular library hours. Each room features:

- Computer
- Speakers
- Microphone
- Webcam
- Keyboard
- High-speed internet connection

A library account is required to use the video conferencing equipment. You can use the equipment even if you have fines on your account.

See reverse for reservation instructions and available locations.

How to Reserve a Room

A PIN is required to access our study rooms. Follow these steps to reserve a room and receive your access PIN.

To get started:

1. Go to www.cuyahogalibrary.org and select a branch from the “Branches” drop-down menu.
2. Choose the Study Room reservation option.
3. Select the day and time.
4. You will receive a confirmation email that will include a room access PIN.
5. The PIN will be required to enter the Study Room, so don't lose it.
6. Once you arrive at the branch, type in your room access PIN on the keypad outside the study room, followed by the # sign.
7. Bring your library card with you. You will need it to use our video conferencing equipment.
