

Child Support Warrant Recall Fridays

Location: Juvenile Justice Center

Every Friday starting January 8, 2016
9:00 am - 3:30 pm

Do you have an outstanding warrant because you failed to show up for genetic testing or failed to appear in court regarding your child support obligation, or you failed to pay a purge amount to avoid going to jail?

Are you avoiding court because you know or think there is a warrant for your arrest?

AVOID GOING TO JAIL!!

Your warrant will be recalled and you can benefit from supportive services.

How about a fresh start? Pay a minimum of $50, or more to start the process. All payments collected will be applied directly to your child support obligation.

Cuyahoga Job and Family Services

Available Supportive Services to both Parents:

- Free genetic testing available
- Training on how to access your child support account online
- Access a copy of your specific child support order
- Information on parenting time with your child
- Same day purge review hearing or a date to appear in court within 90 days
- Information on the Families on Track Program
- Cuyahoga County Fatherhood Initiative and employment opportunities
- Information on license reinstatement.
